

Policy against unsolicited mail (spam)

Faith Guard Asset Management Ltd. conducts its activities through the online platform (hereina fter referred to as the "Site", "Platform"). By registering on the Site, the user accepts the terms and conditions of this Anti-Solicitation Policy.

1. Main provisions

1.1. 1.1 The cooperation between the Fund and the Client (hereinafer referred to as the "Partes") assumes compliance with all provisions of this Document.

2. Basic concepts

2.1. Spam - mass mailing of information of dubious nature, which was not requested by the recipient by e-mail. It is usually of an advertising nature and is intended for recipients who have not consented to receive it.

2.2. Anti-Solicitation Policy. This Document contains provisions in which the Foundation expresses its position on spamming by members and partners registered on the Foundation's Website.

2.3. By registering on the Website and using the Foundation's services, Users confirm that they are familiarized with this Anti-Spam Policy, agree with all its provisions and undertake to comply with them.

3. The Fund's fight against unsolicited mailing (spam)

3.1. The Fund understands by "spam" the well-known "rules of Internet use" that constitute the rules of business.

3.2. The Fund prohibits mass spamming activities carried out by affiliate program participants and investors.

3.3. User accounts identified as sources of unwanted advertising information will be blocked and funds on the accounts will be frozen without the possibility of withdrawal, in accordance with the terms of the User Agreement.

Information for users

3.4. The Client undertakes not to use the contacts and address of the Fund to distribute advertising messages, the purpose of which is to send spam and/or spread information about other projects and companies.

3.5. Users are prohibited to send spam to existing and potential clients of the Fund without their consent to receive promotional messages.

3.6. In case of receiving spam using information about the Fund, the User is advised to inform the Support Service. Afer verification of the information, the sanctions provided by the User Agreement are applied to the violators.

4. Rules for modifying the Anti-Spam Policy

4.1. The Foundation reserves the right to make changes to the current provisions of this An9- Solicitation Policy without obligatory notification of Users. Using the Website, Users undertake to follow the changes to this Document.