ABOUT STAKING

NDX Staking

 NORMAL

 LOW START

 LOW INCOME

Staking is freezing a certain amount of coins to secure and maintain the network. In return, you get a reward in the form of additional coins.

- ✓ Fixed income rate
- ✓ Compound interest
- ✓ Daily accrual of profit
- ✓ Early package sale

This is one of the easiest ways to make money in the blockchain world, but there are nuances. The security of staking depends on the blockchain protocol. Our analysts analyze possible vulnerabilities and risks and choose platforms that meet security standards.

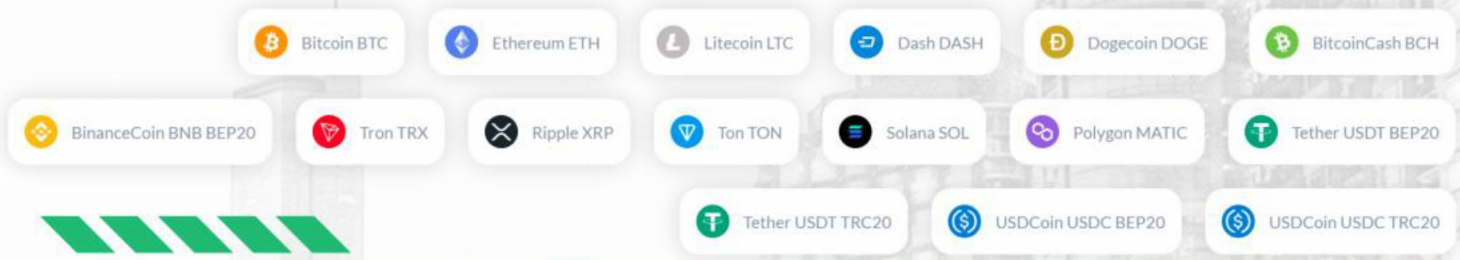

We offer fixed income in this risk free earning direction with a variation of term.

ABOUT CLOUD MINING

NDX Cloud Mining

 OPTIMAL

 LOW START

 AVERAGE INCOME

Mining is the extraction of digital currency using specialized equipment by network participants. We rent computing power from data centers and in return receive remuneration from the blockchain.

Our specialists cooperate with large data centers and long-term participants of the blockchain network. The leased hash power generates revenue from the moment the additional capacity is purchased.

-  Daily accrual of profit
-  Early package sale
-  Fixed income rate
-  Compound interest

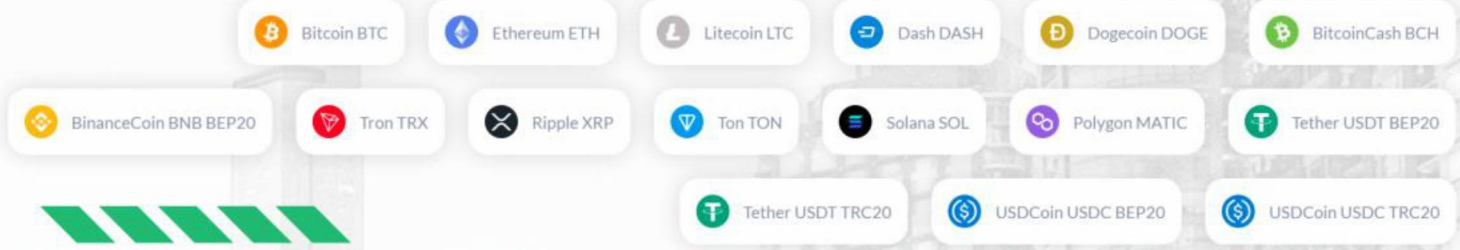

Our clients do not need to understand the details of cloud mining, individual equipment setup, high-speed Internet connection and equipment maintenance. Our service provides a fixed fee for the activation of an additional package of power to our farm and does not require qualified knowledge.
